George Shinn
Owner

Growing up in the small North Carolina town of Kannapolis, businessman George Shinn dreamt of owning a professional sports franchise. Armed with only a love of sports, seasoned sales skills and strong faith, Shinn set out to accomplish this seemingly impossible task in 1985 when he initiated his charge to obtain an NBA franchise. He needed just two years to realize his dream. On April 1, 1987, NBA Commissioner David Stern called Shinn to deliver the good news – he had been selected as the first to receive one of four expansion franchises and would begin play in Charlotte, N.C. in 1988.

As the owner of the team from its inception and the subsequent 14 seasons in Charlotte, Shinn officially filed an application with the NBA on January 17, 2002, to move the Hornets to New Orleans, La., beginning with the 2002-03 season. Four months later, the NBA's Board of Governors unanimously endorsed the Relocation Committee's recommendation to move the team from Charlotte and the New Orleans Hornets were born.

Shinn's leadership and resolve once again came to the forefront when the Hornets were faced with perhaps the biggest challenge in franchise history. In the aftermath of the tragedy caused by Hurricane Katrina, he was able to work with the NBA to secure the team a temporary home in Oklahoma City for the 2005-06 season. Under his leadership, the Hornets turned a potentially devastating situation into one of sports' most uplifting success stories when they finished 11th in the league in attendance. The 2006-07 season was again split between New Orleans and Oklahoma City, and Shinn's business and marketing accumen were key to successfully executing games, special events and charitable efforts in both cities. In the summer of 2007, he brought the Hornets back to Louisiana on a full-time basis and focused his efforts on two goals: the successful relocation of his business and the rebuilding of New Orleans.

As a champion of the causes of education and responsible corporate citizenship, Shinn takes great pride in creating, implementing and supporting a variety of initiatives that leave a positive and lasting impact in the community.

In New Orleans, Shinn sits on the boards of the Boy Scouts of America, The National D-Day Museum, the New Orleans Metrovision Executive Committee and Loyola University. He has made significant financial contributions to organizations such as the United Way and served as co-chair for the fundraising committee at Tulane University. Through the team's 12 Days of Giving program, Shinn and his wife, Denise, personally visited the Children's Hospital of New Orleans to deliver gifts and spread holiday cheer, took 26 essay contest winners on a shopping spree at Target, purchased 50 bicycles to donate to underprivileged children, hosted 1,000 local senior citizens for a holiday luncheon and donated new shoes and socks to clients at the Grace House and Bridge House addiction recovery centers. For these efforts, New Orleans Mayor Ray Nagin asked Shinn to serve as Grand Marshall of the city's Martin Luther King Jr. parade and then presented him with the Quiet Hero Award at a prayer breakfast that launched the city's MLK weekend activities. Every year on his birthday, Shinn spends time at hospital maternity wards donating diapers, bottles and other essentials to every mother who gives birth on May 11th.

During the Hornets' tenure in Oklahoma City, Shinn reciprocated the generosity the team received by reaching out to the community at every opportunity. He and Denise led a group of 75 staff members in a Breast Health Awareness March, an effort which earned him recognition as a Pink Tie Guy, a highly-respected community leader that has made significant contributions to the Susan G. Komen Foundation's goals and aims. The couple also joined Govenor and First Lady Henry at a Habitat For Humanity workday and invited the recipients of the new home to sit with them at a Hornets game. During the holidays, Shinn spearheaded the team's NBA Season of Giving activities that included a luncheon for 1,000 senior citizens and a shoe giveaway at a downtown homeless shelter. And when tragedy struck the OKC Police Department, he responded with the largest single donation ever made locally to a slain officer's fund.

These examples of dedication to making a difference in the community in which he lives and works come from the core of Shinn's personality and background.

As a young man in Kannapolis, Shinn worked in a textile mill, at a car wash and even as a janitor in a school that he would eventually own. Lessons learned in those humble beginnings would soon pay off when in 1975, at the age of 34, Shinn was the youngest person ever awarded the prestigious Horatio Alger Award, which recognizes "rags-to-riches" business leaders who achieve success while maintaining values in patriotism, faith and civic involvement. His purchase and development of the Rutledge Education System and its chain of proprietary business schools would form the cornerstone of his fortune and eventually lead him to real estate developments, auto dealerships, publishing ventures and professional sports franchises including the Hornets, the Charlotte Knights AAA minor league baseball team and the Charlotte Checkers and Atlantic City Boardwalk Bullies of the East Coast Hockey League. Although he owns championship rings from the Knights and the Bullies and a World Series ring as a AAA affiliate of the Florida Marlins, Shinn's number one goal has been and will continue to be winning an NBA championship with the Hornets.

Shinn was inspired to share his success secrets with others and authored five books, including his 1977 autobiography "Good Morning, Lord!" (later re-printed as "The American Dream Still Works") and "Leadership Development," which became a best-selling college textbook. Later, a biographical account of his life and experiences as an NBA owner was told in "You Gotta' Believe," and he published "Introduction to Professional Selling" and "Miracle of Motivation," which are still on the market today. His success in the publishing world makes Shinn a highly sought-after public speaker, especially on topics related to sales and motivation.

For a lifetime of achievement in business and higher education, Shinn was one of twelve to receive an American Success Award from President Bush in a White House ceremony. He also holds six honorary degrees in humanities.

Shinn and his wife, Denise, were married in New Orleans on March 8, 2003. He has three children, Chris, Susan and Chad, from a previous marriage.

Gary Chouest

Minority Owner

Gary Chouest purchased 25 percent of the New Orleans Hornets on July 24, 2007. A longtime Hornets season ticket holder and noted basketball enthusiast, Chouest's local ties, passion for the sport and commitment to rebuilding and improving the Gulf South region made him the ideal partner for the Shinn family.

Chouest currently serves as President and CEO of the Edison Chouest Offshore companies. Based out of Galliano, La., the Chouest group of companies build, own and operate marine vessels, employing over 5,000 men and women worldwide.

Edison Chouest Offshore evolved from a two vessel shrimping operation founded by Edison Chouest, Sr. (Gary's father) in the 1950s to one of the premier owners and operators of specialty marine vessels in the world. Gary joined the company full-time at age 19 and has since worked in all capacities, starting out as a deckhand and working his way up to captain.

Chouest was instrumental in the formation of North American Shipbuilding in 1974. The shipyard was founded in response to clients' demands for higher-quality and more specialized vessels. Located in Larose, La., this world-class facility builds only for Chouest-affiliated companies. Following the success of North American Shipbuilding, Chouest opened up three more shipyards: North American Fabricators (Houma, La.), Gulf Ship (Gulfport, Miss.), and, most recently, NavShip (Brazil).

In 1996, Chouest entered into a new business with the formation of C-Port. C-Port stands as the hub of Port Fourchon, the Gulf of Mexico's premier deepwater port. Purpose-designed to reduce port turnaround time, the two C-Port terminals comprise 18 specialized slips, configured to safely and efficiently transfer cargo and provide a wide range of support services to accommodate the largest of deepwater offshore vessels.

Gary has been married to his wife, Carolyn, for 42 years. They have one daughter (Dionne) and four sons (Dino, Damon, Casey and Ross). Four of his children are actively involved in the family business.

Hugh Weber
President

Hugh Weber was named chief operations officer of the Hornets on July 10, 2006 and continues to lead the organization's business operations as team president. In his role, Weber facilitates all business aspects of the franchise, including strategic planning, business development, marketing/branding and day-to-day operations.

Prior to his role as team president, Weber served the Hornets as vice president of business operations, overseeing all aspects of the New Orleans market while the team was headquartered in Oklahoma City.

Weber has extensive leadership experience in the consumer packaged goods industry with primary expertise in business-to-business disciplines. Before joining the Hornets, Weber was vice president with Ventura Foods, a billion-dollar, multi-national subsidiary of global giant Mitsui & Co. At the age of 32, Weber became one of the youngest officers in company history and spent the last ten years overseeing multiple North American divisions in execution of sales, marketing and service initiatives.

Weber began his professional career with Proctor & Gamble where he held various positions in the Pacific Northwest in their commericals products division after completing his education at the University of Puget Sound (Wash.).

While at Puget Sound, Weber was the 1989 NAIA Track and Field District 1 3000 Meter Steeplechase champion (he still holds the school record for that event).

Hugh and his wife, Julie, are involved in multiple children's charities and are especially dedicated to The Casa Berne Orphanage of Guatemala and St. Jude's Cancer Research Hospital. They have four children, Brenna (11), Zoë (11), Hugh, III (5) and Jackson (4). In his spare time, Weber enjoys running, golfing, reading and spending time with his wife and children.

Chad Shinn
Executive Officer of the Board

Chad Shinn has been closely involved with the Hornets organization since its inception in 1987. As executive officer of the board, he advises the ownership and senior management groups on key decisions and strategies for the team's business and basketball operations.

In 2007, Shinn spearheaded the organization's return home to New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina forced the franchise to temporarily reside in Oklahoma City for two seasons. He coordinated and led "Team 504," a committee comprised of staff members focused on the logistics of moving the business and more than 75 staff members and their families.

In his previous experience with the Hornets, Shinn worked with several different departments to learn the daily operations of the organization. He spent the 2004-05 season as an assistant to the general manager and equipment manager, and during the 2005-06 season he served as special assistant to the owner and president.

Shinn graduated from Texas Tech University High School in Charlotte, N.C., attended community college in Greenville, N.C., and was most recently enrolled at Tulane University. He was born in Charlotte and currently resides in New Orleans.

Jeff Bower
General Manager

Jeff Bower's versatility has been an invaluable asset to the Hornets' basketball staff during his 12-plus seasons with the club. As the team's general manager, he handles all day-to-day basketball operations and oversees player personnel decisions, the coordination of schedules for the entire scouting staff and the compilation of data in preparation for the NBA Draft.

Bower's first season as general manager (2005-06) resulted in a 20-win improvement over the previous season (best in the NBA). That success fueled him to build on the team's momentum and overhaul the roster for the 2006-07 campaign. Through an intricate series of moves on both a large and small scale, Bower was able to keep certain pieces that were key to the Hornets' previous success and combine them with new additions that he felt the team needed to reach the next level. A new and improved roster was formed (including free agents Peja Stojakovic, Bobby Jackson, and Jannero Pargo and trade acquisition Tyson Chandler) and the Hornets had completed their busiest and most exciting offseason in franchise history. Perhaps most impressive of all was the fact that Bower was able to accomplish his goals, fill the desired roster spots and add the exact players he targeted while keeping the team under the salary cap. Despite being hit with a slew of injuries (Stojakovic missed 69 games, Chris Paul missed 18 games, David West missed 30 games and Jackson missed 26 games), Bower's 2006-07 Hornets were still able to exceed last season's win total and were in contention for a playoff spot until the final week of the regular season.

Bower began his tenure with the Hornets as an advance scout from 1995 to 1997 before earning a promotion as the team's director of scouting (where he served from the 1997-98 season through 1999-00). In addition to his scouting duties during the 1998-99 season, Bower joined the coaching ranks as an assistant after Paul Silas was named interim head coach on March 7, 1999 (and helped him lead the Hornets to a 22-13 record). He was named assistant general manager for the 2000-01 season. On June 4, 2001, Bower was promoted to general manager (under then-Vice President of Basketball Operations Bob Bass) and held that position through the 2002-03 season. He returned to the bench as an assistant coach under Tim Floyd in 2003-04 before returning to the front office as director of player personnel in 2004-05. Bower's years of experience working at all levels in the Hornets' basketball operations department culminated with his appointment to the current post of general manager just prior to the start of the team's 2005-06 training camp.

Prior to joining the Hornets, Bower enjoyed an impressive career at the collegiate level. He spent three years as an assistant coach at Penn State University from 1983-86 before moving to Marist College in Poughkeepsie, N.Y. After first serving as an assistant coach from 1986 through 1990, he was promoted to associate head coach, a position he held for five years. Bower helped lead the Red Foxes to an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1987 after winning the Northeast Conference. He also coached former Indiana Pacers center Rik Smits, the second overall pick in the 1988 NBA Draft, for two years during his time at Marist.

In addition to his college and NBA accolades, Bower was a three-time guest of the International Basketball Academy held in Pula, Croatia, where he gave coaching clinics and provided instruction to players.

The native of Hollidaysburg, Penn., and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Lindsey (born in January 2003). Bower holds a bachelor's degree in history/education from St. Francis College in Pennsylvania.

Byron Scott
Head Coach

As head coach of the Hornets for the last three seasons, Byron Scott has led the team through a complete restructuring, an unprecedented two-year run playing for two cities due to a horrific natural disaster and a staggering rash of injuries. In fighting through those obstacles, he has instilled the team with the tenacity and mental toughness that helped him reach eight NBA Finals (and win three NBA titles) as a player and coach. Scott's own standard of excellence has now been adopted by his Hornets as he continues to build them into one of the league's up-and-coming teams.

Scott's first season as head coach saw the team post an 18-64 mark after the decision was made to restructure the team and look toward the future. Despite their record, the Hornets forged a reputation as one of the league's scrappiest teams and won over fans with their hard-nosed and entertaining style of play. Scott's second season on the bench was perhaps his most satisfying as a head coach. Just prior to the start of training camp, the team was displaced from its New Orleans home by Hurricane Katrina and landed in Oklahoma City. He would lead the team from the sidelines in four different home arenas and still manage to guide them to a 38-44 record. That 20-game turnaround was the best in the NBA that season, leading to Scott finishing fifth in NBA Coach of the Year balloting. 2006-07 began with high expectations and huge promise, but a slew of injuries hampered the Hornets' drive for a playoff spot. The team lost 196 player games due to injury but still managed to stay in contention for the postseason until the final week of the regular season.

Scott came to the Hornets after three-and-a-half seasons in New Jersey, during which time he compiled a 149-139 (.517) record and took the Nets from the bottom of the Eastern Conference (only three teams were worse the season before he arrived) to one of the NBA's elite teams.

He posted a 26-56 mark in his first year with the Nets (2000-01), but that record was not a sign of the times to come. Scott guided the Nets to a 52-30 record and a trip to the NBA Finals in the 2001-02 season, just his second as a head coach at any level. The 52 wins were a Nets franchise record and represented the sixth-best turnaround (26 games) in NBA history. The team enjoyed several other franchise firsts, including the Atlantic Division title, the best record in the Eastern Conference and a 50-win season. The Nets' team success translated into individual honors for Scott, as he was named head coach of the Eastern Conference All-Star Team during the 2002 All-Star Game in Philadelphia. As good as the Nets were in the regular season, their march through the playoffs was even more impressive. Scott led the team to victories over the Pacers, Hornets and Celtics before they fell to the L.A. Lakers in the Finals.

Under Scott's leadership, the Nets finished 49-33 and returned to the Finals in 2002-03. The team captured its second consecutive Atlantic Division crown and once again rolled through the playoffs, defeating the Bucks in six games in the first round and sweeping the Celtics and Pistons in the Conference Semifinals and Conference Finals, respectively. After losing the first two games of their Finals matchup with the Spurs, Scott led the Nets back with two consecutive wins to tie the series before they eventually lost in six games.

Prior to joining the Nets, Scott spent two seasons (1998-99 and 1999-00) as an assistant coach with the Sacramento Kings. During his two years in Sacramento, the team posted their first back-to-back winning seasons (27-23 and 44-38) in 20 years. Scott's responsibilities with the Kings included reviewing offensive game plans, advance scouting and individual skill work with perimeter players.

Scott began his coaching career after 14 years as a player in the NBA with Los Angeles (1983-93, 1996-97), Indiana (1993-95) and Vancouver (1995-96). Scott, who holds career averages of 14.1 points, 2.8 rebounds and 2.5 assists, won three NBA championships (1985, 1987, 1988) as a key member of the Lakers'"Showtime"era. He experienced only two losing seasons as a player and his teams qualified for the playoffs in 13 of his 14 seasons. His 183 career playoff games ranks seventh all-time behind Kareem Abdul-Jabaar, Scottie Pippen, Danny Ainge, Magic Johnson, Robert Parish and Karl Malone. His best season came during the Lakers' 1988 championship run, when he averaged 21.7 points, 4.1 rebounds and 4.1 assists. After spending his 14th and final NBA season with the Lakers, Scott played one season in Greece for Pananthinaikos, where he led the team to the championship.

Scott entered the NBA as the fourth overall selection in the 1983 NBA Draft by the San Diego Clippers before his rights were traded to the Lakers. He played collegiately at Arizona State, where he finished his career as the school's all-time leading scorer with 1,752 points. Scott was named First Team All-Pac 10 as a senior after averaging 21.6 points, 5.4 rebounds and 3.1 assists.

The native of Inglewood, Calif., has an equally impressive record off the court. His non-profit organization, The Byron Scott Children's Fund, has raised more than $6 million over the past decade, with the proceeds going to various children's charities. Scott continued to broaden his résumé during the 2003-04 season when he served as a studio analyst for ABC's NBA telecasts.

Scott and his wife, Anita, have three children, Thomas, LonDen and DaRon.

Darrell Walker
Assistant Coach

Darrell Walker joined the Hornets as an assistant coach in 2004-05, adding the experience of two stints as an NBA head coach and 10 seasons as a player to Byron Scott's staff.

Walker began his coaching career when he served as an assistant in Toronto during the Raptors' 1995-96 inaugural season. He was promoted to head coach the day after the end of the regular season and led the Raptors to a 30-52 mark in 1996-97. Walker resigned as head coach of the team on Feb. 13, 1998 with an overall record of 41-90 (.313).

In the 1999-00 season, Walker pulled a rare hat trick when he served as head coach of three different franchises. He began the season on the sidelines with the Rockford Lightning of the Continental Basketball Association before being named as the interim head coach of the Washington Wizards on Jan. 29. He guided the Wizards to a 15-23 record after taking over and was named the team's director of player personnel in May. On July 14, Walker stepped in once again as an interim head coach, this time with the WNBA's Washington Mystics, who finished the season with a 5-7 record and qualified for the WNBA Playoffs for the first time. He remained in Washington as director of player personnel for the Wizards in 2000-01, was head scout and special assistant in 2001-02 and a scout during the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons before joining the Hornets.

Walker's 10-year playing career began when he was drafted out of Arkansas by the New York Knicks in the first round (12th overall) of the 1983 NBA Draft. He averaged 7.9 points and 3.5 assists as a rookie and 13.5 points, 5.0 assists, 3.4 rebounds and 2.04 steals in his second season. After a third year in New York, Walker was traded to the Denver Nuggets in exchange for a first round pick in the 1987 NBA Draft. He remained in Denver only one season before being traded along with Mark Alarie to Washington in exchange for Jay Vincent and Michael Adams. Walker spent the next four seasons (1987-91) in Washington, including the 1989-90 campaign in which he nearly averaged a triple-double (9.5 points, 8.8 rebounds and 8.0 assists to go along with 1.72 steals). Following the 1990-91 season, Walker was traded to the Detroit Pistons for two second round draft picks. He was released by the Pistons midway through the 1992-93 season, but was signed to two 10-day contracts and then for the rest of the season by the Chicago Bulls. Walker retired as a player after helping the Bulls win the 1993 NBA Championship. He averaged 8.9 points, 4.6 assists, 4.4 rebounds and 1.51 steals in 720 NBA games.

Walker and his wife, Lisa, have four sons, Darrell, Jerrell, Jarrett and Jarren. He also has one daughter, Felicia.

Kenny Gattison

Assistant Coach

Kenny Gattison enters his fifth season on the Hornets bench in 2007-08. He re-joined the Hornets organization in 2003-04 as an assistant coach after playing six seasons for the team from 1989 to 1995. When Byron Scott was named head coach in May 2004, Gattison was the first assistant coach added to his staff (the two were teammates with the Vancouver Grizzlies during the 1995-96 season).

Since retiring from the NBA as a player following the 1995-96 season, Gattison has built an impressive résumé as a coach. He spent two seasons as an assistant under Blaine Taylor at his alma mater of Old Dominion University and was also on the New Jersey Nets' bench as an assistant coach under John Calipari from 1996-98. In addition, Gattison has served as head coach for the Hornets' entry in the Vegas Summer League for the past three seasons.

Gattison enjoyed a nine-year career in the NBA before retiring after the 1995-96 season. He finished with career averages of 4.7 points and 7.9 rebounds with a .520 (1,536-2,956) career field goal percentage in 494 games. Gattison began his career in Phoenix after being drafted by the Suns in the third round (55th pick overall) of the 1986 NBA Draft. After averaging 5.2 points and 3.5 rebounds in 77 games as a rookie in 1986-87, Gattison tore the ACL in his left knee and missed the 1987-88 season. He played two games for the Suns in 1988-89 before signing in Europe.

The Hornets signed the 6-8 Gattison as a free agent on Dec. 2, 1989 after he began the season with the CBA's Quad City Thunder. He went on to play six years with the team, averaging 8.4 points and 5.0 rebounds in 390 games as a member of the Hornets. He shot .529 (1,297-2,454) from the field over his Hornets career, ranking him first in franchise history, while he ranks fifth all-time in blocks (283), fifth all-time in offensive rebounding (622) and fifth all-time in games played (390). Gattison's best season came as a Hornet when he averaged 12.7 ppg, 7.1 rpg, 1.6 apg and 0.8 bpg while playing in 82 games during the 1991-92 campaign.

The Vancouver Grizzlies selected Gattison in the first round (16th overall pick) of the 1995 Expansion Draft. He began the 1995-96 season with the Grizzlies, where he averaged 9.2 points and 4.6 rebounds, but was traded to Orlando along with a second round pick for Jeff Turner on Feb. 22. Gattison did not play in a game with the Magic and retired following the end of the season.

Gattison finished his career at ODU as one of the school's greatest athletes. He was named Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year as a senior and garnered All-Sun Belt honors twice. He finished his career as the conference's all-time leading rebounder and currently stands second in the league's history. At ODU, he ranks fifth in the career rebounding category. He averaged 13.3 ppg and 7.9 rpg during his four-year career and was named to the Sun Belt Conference All-Decade Team.

Gattison graduated from Old Dominion with a bachelor's degree in distributive education, specializing in personnel management. The native of Wilmington, N.C., has three sons, Kyle, Bryce and Grant.

Paul Pressey
Assistant Coach

Paul Pressey joined the Hornets as an assistant coach on July 1, 2007. He brought with him the experience of 26 seasons as a coach and player on the professional level.

Pressey's last coaching position was at the Boston Celtics, where he was an assistant coach for two seasons (2004-2006) and an advance scout for one season (2006-07). During his time in Boston, the Celtics compiled a 102-144 (.415) overall record and made the playoffs once.

Prior to working with the Celtics, Pressey spent four seasons (2000-2004) as an assistant coach for the Orlando Magic. The Richmond, Va. native spent six seasons as an assistant coach with the San Antonio Spurs prior to the Magic, helping the Spurs capture their first-ever NBA Championship in 1998-99.

Pressey enjoyed an 11-year NBA career as a player, appearing in 724 regular season games with Milwaukee and San Antonio. Selected 21st overall by the Milwaukee Bucks in the 1982 NBA Draft, Pressey averaged 10.6 points, 5.6 assists and 3.9 rebounds per game. His best season came in 1984-85 when he averaged 16.1 points, 6.8 assists and 5.4 rebounds per game and was named to the NBA All-Defensive Team as a member of the Bucks.

Prior to the 1992-93 season, Pressey was named an assistant coach for the Golden State Warriors, but after a rash of injuries he was forced back to the court and appeared in 18 games. He spent the entire 1993-94 season as an assistant coach with the Warriors.

Pressey began his collegiate career at Western Texas Junior College, leading them to a 37-0 record and a JUCO National Title, before playing at the University of Tulsa. He graduated from Tulsa in 1982 with a degree in physical education. Pressey helped bring national recognition and the 1981 NIT Championship to The University of Tulsa, leading the Golden Hurricane to a 50-13 record in two seasons. Pressey earned All-America honors as a senior in the 1981-82 season and was named the MVC Player of the Year.

Pressey and his wife, Elizabeth, have four children, Ashley, Angela, Matthew and Phillip.

Charlie Parker
Assistant Coach

Charlie Parker joined the Hornets as an assistant coach in 2006-07, adding the experience of over 30 seasons as a coach on the collegiate and professional level.

Parker's last coaching position was at the Dallas Mavericks, where he was an assistant coach for ten seasons (1995-2005) after eight years at Southern California.

Parker was head coach at USC in 1995-96 after six years as an assistant under George Raveling. He assumed the role of interim head coach Nov. 14, 1994, and finished out the 1994-95 season in that capacity.

Parker was head coach at Wayne State from 1982-88. During his tenure, he posted a record of 120-56 (.682) and established himself as the winningest coach in school history. Averaging 20 wins each season, the Tartars won the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title three times. In addition, the 1985-86 squad finished with a record of 24-7, advancing to the NCAA Division II National Quarterfinals. In his last five seasons at Wayne State, all of Parker's teams finished in the top 20 in various Division II polls and made three tournament appearances. While at Wayne State, Parker was honored as the GLIAC Coach of the Year on two occasions (1984 and 1987) and was also heralded as the Michigan Coach of the Year in 1984. He was inducted into the Wayne State Athletic Hall of Fame in 2001.

Prior to his time at Wayne State, Parker spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Bowling Green. His coaching career began in 1972 at his alma mater, the University of Findlay (Ohio), as both an assistant basketball coach and head track/cross country coach. Parker received his master's degree in education at Bowling Green in 1974. Parker received an honorary doctorate from Findlay in 1995.

Parker graduated from Findlay in 1972 after earning a bachelor's degree in health and physical education and a minor in sociology. While an undergraduate, he had a decorated career in both basketball and track. He was elected to the school's Hall of Fame in 1989. He was elected into the Hancock County (Ohio) Sports Hall of Fame in April of 1998.

Parker and his wife, Lori, have a son, Christopher and a daughter Kendall. Parker has five other children: Sharmelle, Charles, Jr., Cameron, Sharee and Lyndie.

Terry Kofler

Athletic Trainer/Director of Team Travel

Terry Kofler returns for his 20th season with the Hornets in 2007-08, once again facing the formidable task of keeping the Hornets healthy for an entire year. As the team's athletic trainer, his responsibilities center on the day-to-day care, prevention and treatment of the players' injuries. During his tenure, Kofler has provided a perfect example of durability, as he has missed only one of the 1,526 Hornets regular season games and has been at all 61 playoff games and all preseason games (home and away) since the club's inception in 1988. He is certified by the National Athletic Trainers' Association.

Also serving as the team's director of travel, Kofler is responsible for managing the Hornets' in-season road itinerary. He negotiates with and serves as the liaison to the team hotels in all 28 NBA road sites and is in charge of scheduling all practice sites and shootaround times for the club's 40-plus game road slate.

Prior to assuming his current position in the summer of 1988, Kofler had spent his entire career at Xavier University (Ohio). He attended the school as an undergraduate and upon his graduation in 1976, took over the position of head athletic trainer and equipment manager. Kofler held this position from 1976 to 1983, earning his master's degree in education along the way. After spending a year as assistant to the athletic director, Kofler was named assistant athletic director in 1984 and served the school in that capacity until he became the Hornets' trainer. As assistant AD, Kofler coordinated travel arrangements for 13 varsity sports, supervised the school's athletic facilities, administered several varsity sports programs and served as trainer for the men's basketball team.

Kofler is a past Secretary of the National Basketball Trainers Association, and was selected to be trainer for the NBA All-Star Game in Charlotte in 1991. The Cincinnati native has served as consulting trainer for Queen City Sports Medicine, Inc. in Charlotte and as an instructor in the education department of Xavier University. He is also a past chairman of the Greater Cincinnati Athletic Trainers Association.

Kofler, 52, and his wife, Janet, reside in Harvey.

David Jovanovic

Equipment Manager

David Jovanovic, a Hornets employee since their inaugural season in 1988, returns for his 20th season with the club in 2007-08.

His responsibilities as the team's equipment manager consist of ordering and maintaining all of the team's equipment and maintaining the Hornets locker room. At home games, he ensures the Hornets, as well as their opponents, have everything they need for game preparation. In addition, he travels with the team to all preseason, regular season and playoff games and can be found in his usual seat at the end of the bench.

"Big Shot," as he is known by the players and staff, also directs the team's extensive ball boy program.

Along with his daily responsibilities with the team, he has also assisted with the original 1988 CBA tryouts for the Hornets, the 1991 NBA All-Star Game, training camp for the 1995 USA Women's Basketball Team that competed in Atlanta for the Summer Olympics and an exhibition game with the 1994 USA Men's Basketball Team that competed in the World Championships in Toronto as well as numerous NCAA Tournament Regionals and ACC Tournaments.

A native of Arlington, Va., Jovanovic attended Belmont Abbey College in Belmont, N.C., and earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1988. He and his wife of 16 years, MaryEllen, have two daughters, Grace (13) and Abigail (11). He is an avid NFL and NASCAR fan and enjoys spending time with his family.

Jack Manson
Strength and Core Trainer

The 2007-08 season will be Jack Manson's fifth as the strength and core trainer for the Hornets. His duties include designing and implementing exercise and strength conditioning programs that help players achieve and maintain optimal fitness throughout the year. In addition, he is consulted for various injuries players may encounter during the season.

Manson has 19 years of experience as a certified physician assistant. He has worked in internal and primary care medicine, emergency medicine and occupational medicine. He practiced at Howard University and Washington Hospital Center in Washington, D.C. and Ochsner Clinic in New Orleans. Manson ran the human performance lab and administered personal training at Elmwood Fitness Center (New Orleans) from 2000-2003, where he worked with elite athletes and fitness expert Mackie Shilstone.

A native of Washington, D.C., Manson attended Mackin Catholic H.S. and grew up playing basketball with many of the great athletes from that area including Johnny Dawkins, Len Bias and Duane Ferrell. Manson received a bachelor's degree in physician assistantship from Howard University in 1986. He later went on to earn a master's degree in exercise physiology from Miami University (Ohio) in 1992.

Mark Cranston
Director of Athlete Performance and Rehabilitation

Mark Cranston enters his first season with the Hornets in the full-time role of director of athletic performance and rehabilitation. He spent the 2005-06 and the first half of the 2006-07 seasons as a volunteer athletic trainer for the team during the Hornets' two-season stay in Oklahoma City. He joined the team in a full time capacity in January of 2007.

His primary focus is the rehabilitation and prevention of players' injuries, and assists Athletic Trainer Terry Kofler with the daily care of the team's health. He also works with Strength and Core Trainer Jack Manson to help implement strength programs to prevent future injuries. Cranston is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association as an athletic trainer, and the National Academy of Sports Medicine as a performance enhancement specialist and corrective exercise specialist.

Prior to joining the Hornets, Cranston was the director of sports medicine, physical therapy and athletic training at McBride Clinic, Inc. He has over 25 years of physical therapy and athletic training experience that includes treatment of numerous collegiate and professional athletes. He also served as the director of athletic training at Southern Nazarene University for 15 years, working with numerous NAIA National Tournaments.

Cranston received his bachelor's degree in physical therapy from Wichita State University and his masters of public health from the University of Oklahoma. He currently resides in Destrehan, La., with his wife Carol and daughter Cara (15). He has two other daughters, Brittany (25) and Elise (22), who also work for the Hornets.

Irving Roland
Video Coordinator

Irving Roland enters his third season with the Hornets, his second as video coordinator. He spent the 2005-06 season working as assistant video coordinator.

Roland's responsibilities include advance scouting of all opponents, recording games for scouting purposes, providing scouting and specialty tapes for the coaches and players, and coordinating and compiling statistical information for the entire basketball staff and players.

Roland came to the Hornets after working as an intern for the Boston Celtics through the 2004-05 season. In Boston, his duties included recording NBA, college and international games for scouting purposes. Additionally, he was responsible for editing games for all opponents and preparing individual player edits of upcoming opponents.

A native of Midwest City, Okla., Roland played basketball at Southwestern Oklahoma State University (Weatherford, Okla.) for two seasons after transferring from Carl Albert State College.

During his junior season, he ranked 23rd in the nation in three-point percentage among Division II athletes. He also ranked in the top five in both free throw and three-point percentage in the Lone Star Conference and was named honorable mention All-LSC.

Brian Hagen

Assistant to The General Manager/Director of Scouting

Brian Hagen begins his fourth season with the Hornets, his second as assistant to the general manager and first as director of scouting. He is responsible for evaluating and studying current NBA rosters, heading special research projects aimed at upgrading the team's roster and evaluating college prospects.

For three seasons he served as video coordinator, where he was responsible for compiling video and statistical information used by Hornets coaches and players.

Hagen came to the Hornets after spending the 2002-03 season as an assistant coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi, where he was involved in every aspect of the program (including on-the-court instruction, off-the-court preparation and recruiting).

Hagen started his career under former Hornets head coach Tim Floyd as an undergraduate assistant at Iowa State University (1996-97 and 1997-98). Hagen remained with the Cyclones under head coach Larry Eustachy for two more seasons, during which the team won the Big 12 regular season championship and the Big 12 tournament en route to advancing to the Elite Eight in 2000.

Following his time at Iowa State, Hagen joined the Chicago Bulls in 2000-01 as a special assistant to the head coach, where he broke down game film and handled other various duties as assigned by the coaching staff. In 2001-02, Hagen assumed the role of team leader of basketball operations for the Chicago Bulls Training Academy. There, he administered over 100 Bulls basketball camps throughout the Chicagoland area, gave private lessons to Chicago youth at the Academy and administered the Junior Bulls program.

Hagen graduated from Iowa State with a degree in management information systems in 2000. He and his wife, Jamie, live in New Orleans.

Andrew Loomis

Director of Basketball Administration and Player Development

Andrew Loomis begins his sixth season with the Hornets, his fourth as director of basketball administration and first as director of player development. He is responsible for researching and compiling statistical information on prospective players, evaluating salary cap implications for potential trades, ensuring compliance of the NBA's Collective Bargaining Agreement and assisting with the implementation of player development initiatives and community relations activities.

Prior to joining the Hornets, he interned for the Orlando Magic's media relations department. He contributed to the production and development of Magic Magazine, created media analysis reports and worked on the media relations game night staff throughout the internship.

Loomis, a 2002 graduate of Tulane University, spent four years working for the Green Wave men's basketball program. In addition, while working toward his bachelor's degree in English, he completed internships at Fox Sports Net in Los Angeles and Madison Square Garden.

In New Orleans, Loomis worked at several national events held in the city, including Super Bowl XXXVI and the 1999 and 2001 NCAA Basketball Tournaments.

In his spare time, he enjoys playing golf and traveling. He currently resides in New Orleans.

PASSION PURPOSE PRIDE

New Orleans Arena

A center stage for all forms of entertainment, the New Orleans Arena is home to the Hornets and is the setting for some of the music industry's top performers and acts. The eight-year-old arena (opened October 29, 1999) stands tall in the colorful mix of downtown New Orleans and is connected by two pedestrian ramps to the magnificent Louisiana Superdome.

Built for $112 million, the facility is managed by SMG, which provides facility services to 189 venues worldwide. With a seating capacity of 18,500 (17,961 for Hornets games), the Arena contains 56 executive suites, Marriott Renaissance Club including 140 seats, and 2,800 club seats, maintaining and providing personal amenities specific to each suite. The Arena provides a numerous amount of facilities at various locations for the convenience of its patrons: 24 permanent stands for food and beverage, three permanent stands for merchandise, 18 women's restrooms and 14 men's restrooms on public concourses and a 5,000-car Superdome garage adjacent to the Arena. All seating and access are in compliance with ADA regulations.

Location
The Arena is located downtown, at the foot of a ramp from Interstate 10, the Mississippi River Bridge approach and the Pontchartrain Expressway; connected by two pedestrian ramps to the Louisiana Superdome.

Home Teams
New Orleans Hornets (National Basketball Association), Tulane University (Conference USA Basketball), Nokia Sugar Bowl Basketball Tournament.

Seating Capacitites
Basketball: 18,500 (17,956 for Hornets)

Concert (end stage): 17,000

Arena Football: 16,900

Management
Headquartered in Philadelphia, SMG provides facility services to 189 venues in 41 states, Puerto Rico, Canada and Europe, controls over 1.92 million entertainment seats worldwide, and manages over nine million square feet of exhibit space.

For additional company information, visit www.smgworld.com

Club Seats
The Arena has 2,800 club seats via seat licenses, all located in the middle sections of the lower bowl; 1,400 each side of the arena floor. All have oversized, cushioned seats with cup holders. Excellent access is provided to Club lounges (one on each side). Club seat holders have options for all Arena events.

Executive Suites
The Arena has 56 executive suites; 16 have 18 theatre-style seats; all others have 12 theatre-style seats. Other amenities include a private concourse, refrigerators, wet bar, television sets with in-house TV and cable channels, access and membership to two club level lounges and preferred parking.

The super suite remains one of the Arena's unique attributes. Named the Marriott Renaissance club, this super suite offers the convenience, comfort, and service of a private suite on a single-game basis. The Marriott Renaissance Club includes 140 seats and is newly furnished with the same plush carpeting, tables, chairs and TV monitors.

Harrah's Courtside Club Lounge
Accessed from the East Lobby on La Salle Street, the Harrah's Courtside Club offers a lounge area, dining facilities, a patio area and a unique view of the team as it heads onto the court.

Scoreboards, Information System
The Arena has a four-sided center-hung scoreboard with four 10mm Daktronics ProStar Video boards, two 360 degree LED Daktronics ProAd rings, SacoVision video screens, auxiliary scoreboards and message boards throughout the main arena, a 360-degree LED board, two Daktronics ProAd hustle boards located in each end zone and monitors throughout the concourses, suites and private dining areas.

Press Facilities
Media facilities include courtside seating, a working press area, an interview area and dining area provisions for uplink to satellite vans and state-of-the-art TV broadcast facilities.

Locker Rooms
Along with the Hornets locker room and visiting NBA locker room, the Arena is equipped with three additional locker rooms along with six dressing rooms and three production offices.

Concessions Stands
The Arena has 24 permanent concession stands plus numerous other portable units for the sale of food, beverages and souvenir items.

Box Office
The Arena has full box office services, with 16 ticket windows at the main entrance on the Northwest corner of facility plus six additional windows on the East end of the building. The box office phone number is (504) 587-3822.

Arena Floor
The Arena floor has 24,650 square feet of column-free space; 290 ft. long by 85 ft. wide, with retractable seating units in one end zone.

The John A. Alario Sr. Event Center at the Bayou Segnette Sports Complex is a 77,000-square foot multipurpose facility located on the Westbank of Jefferson Parish in Westwego, Louisiana. The Alario Center is designed to host athletic events, trade shows, concerts, graduations and other events. The Center's four hardwood courts offer more than 30,000 square feet of floor space that can accommodate over 3,000 theater-style seats or nearly two hundred 10x10 tradeshow booths. The Alario Center also has three 1,500-square foot meeting rooms and a boardroom. The Bayou Segnette Sports Complex grounds are ideal for hosting festivals and outdoor events. The final component of the Bayou Segnette Sports Complex is Segnette Field, a state-of-the-art baseball stadium, which opened in May of 2002. Two more NBA-length basketball courts are being installed and are schedule to be complete in January of 2008. For more information on the Bayou Segnette Sports Complex, please visit www.alariocenter.com.

The Alario Center has served as the Hornets' practice facility every season the team has been in New Orleans. The Alario Center will serve as the Hornets' 2007 training camp headquarters and the team's basketball operations staff will use the Center's office space during the 2007-08 season.

Location: 2000 Segnette Boulevard, Westwego, LA 70094

Telephone: (504) 349-5525

Press Facilities: A complete press area with phone access is available for all Hornets functions

NBA Cares is the league's global community outreach initiative that addresses important social issues with an emphasis on programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes. The NBA, its teams and players implement and execute programs that impact and inspire children and families worldwide.

NBA Cares also reaches more than two million players, coaches, parents and officials from around the world participating in recreational youth basketball leagues as part of the Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA program. The program stresses the fundamentals of the game and the values of sportsmanship, teamwork and leading an active, healthy and safe lifestyle.

Basketball Without Borders (BWB), a basketball instructional camp for young people that promotes friendship, healthy living and education, features current and former NBA players and team personnel acting as camp coaches and mentors. Since the inaugural camp in 2001, BWB has been held in nine countries and territories on five continents and has featured more than 160 NBA players, coaches and team personnel from 30 different teams for the nearly 1,000 young athletes from more than 100 different countries and territories.

As the world's greatest athletes, NBA players are dedicated to the community and committed to giving back in extraordinary ways. Through their foundations, camp efforts and philanthropic work, they make a difference for hundreds of non-profit and youth serving organizations.

NBA Cares supports numerous causes and organizations that positively impact communities and people in need. Make-A-Wish, UNICEF, KaBOOM!, Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Hands On Network, Special Olympics, the Global Business Coalition on HIV/AIDS and the World Food Programme are just a few of the organizations with which the NBA has a partnership.

HORNETS Believe

Hornets believe in doing unto others, lending a helping hand, lifting up those in need. Hornets believe in children. Hornets believe in the future. Hornets believe in compassion, community and commitment. Hornets believe in service to others. Hornets believe in being gracious, appreciative and humble. Hornets believe in helping dreams come true.

The Shinn Foundation

A champion of the causes of education and responsible corporate citizenship, Hornets owner George Shinn takes great pride in creating, implementing and supporting a variety of initiatives that leave a positive and lasting impact in the community. Providing financial support for these initiatives is the Shinn Foundation, the team's primary fundraising vehicle for all community programs and charitable contributions. Foundation events throughout the year include an annual black tie gala, tip-off luncheons and memorabilia auctions.

Hoops for Homes

Hoops for Homes represents the Hornets' commitment to rebuilding New Orleans brick-by-brick and house-by-house. Since the 2005-06 season, the Shinn Foundation has raised approximately $1.5 million to finance the project through a variety of fundraisers and campaigns featuring fans, corporate partners, and more than a dozen teams from around the NBA.

Summer Hoops Clinics

This summer, the Hornets reached out to more than 1,800 children through free basketball skills clinics held across the Gulf South region. Children received three hours of instruction and interaction with Hornets players Hilton Armstrong and Cedric Simmons.

Read to Achieve

Read to Achieve is an NBA initiative aimed at developing a lifelong love of reading in children. The Hornets' Read to Achieve efforts focus on serving elementary and middle school students through "Reading Timeouts" - appearances by Hornets players at local schools that help to reinforce the important messages of education and literacy. In addition to these appearances, the Hornets Book Mobile program was developed to encourage children to spend time reading and to put free books directly into their hands. The purple, yellow and teal school bus is a learning center on wheels and features a replica of the Hornets court as a floor and bookshelves filled with children's books. Last season, the Hornets Book Mobile made over 55 stops at local schools and community centers and distributed over 18,000 books. For more information about the Book Mobile please contact Devyn Smith at (504) 593-4862.

Season of Giving

Hornets players Chris Paul and Bobby Jackson got the holiday season started on the right foot at Thanksgiving when they purchased and distributed 100 turkeys with all the fixings for underserved families. The Season of Giving continued into the month of December when Tyson Chandler hosted a shopping spree for underprivileged children at a local Wal-Mart. Chris Paul and Bobby Jackson followed that event with a bike giveaway to 150 surprised and deserving children at home games. George and Denise Shinn finished off the season in grand fashion, hosting more than 1,100 senior citizens at their annual Seniors Holiday Luncheons and distributed more than 350 pairs of new shoes and socks to clients at local homeless shelters and missions.

Drives and Giveaways
Throughout the season the Hornets hold canned food drives to support local agencies. Thanks to the generosity of our fans, drives in New Orleans and Oklahoma City collected more than 35,000 cans of food and over $4,000 for local agencies.

Wish Requests
Throughout the season, the Hornets support a variety of organizations that grant wishes for terminally and chronically ill children from around the country. For more information, contact Morgan Cornwell at (504) 593-4863.

Hornets Community Tickets
Each season, members of the Hornets team and Basketball Operations department purchase tickets for every home game to donate to non-profit organizations that work with underserved children. Last season Head Coach Byron Scott joined Chris Paul, David West, Peja Stojakovic, Rasual Butler, Tyson Chandler and Bobby Jackson to provide these tickets. For more information please contact Shawn Morrow at (504) 593-4861.

Susan G. Komen for the Cure
For the past seven years, the Hornets have worked with Susan G. Komen for the Cure to raise breast health awareness and money for research into finding a cure for breast cancer. Each season the Hornets host a Pack the Place in Pink Night to honor breast cancer survivors, breast health heroes and make a donation to Susan G. Komen for the Cure.

Louisiana 4-H
Over the past four years the Hornets have developed a strong and mutually beneficial partnership with Louisiana 4-H. Through this partnership, the Hornets host a 4-H night at a home game for more than 2,000 children from 4-H clubs across the state of Louisiana, allowing them to recognize the top members in each parish and giving them opportunities to showcase their members. In addition to participating in game night elements, the night serves as a fundraiser for each parish and the state organization as a whole.

Speakers Bureau / Appearances
Players, coaches, broadcasters, Hugo and the Honeybees are available for appearances and speaking engagements throughout the year. Please contact Vicki Guerra at (504) 593-4826 to arrange for a speaker, Justin Bailey at (504) 593-4838 to arrange for a visit from Hugo or Ashley Deaton at (504) 593-4840 to arrange an appearance by the Honeybees.

Hornets Memorabilia and Promotional Items
Charities and organizations seeking support for an upcoming event or program should send a formal request to Community Relations Department, New Orleans Hornets, 1250 Poydras, 19th floor, New Orleans, LA 70113. All requests must appear on official organization letterhead and be delivered at least 4-6 weeks prior to the event. Please include the date of the event, 501-C3 tax ID number, purpose of event or program and a contact name, telephone number and address.

The Honeybees dance team has helped make New Orleans Hornets home games one of the hottest tickets in town. The Honeybees bring an element of entertainment to Hornets games by performing innovative dance routines to a wide variety of music during timeouts, select quarter breaks and halftime intermissions.

Away from the basketball court, the Honeybees are active in the community making personal appearances throughout the season. In the past, they have performed at USBL and NBA Development League games as well as nationally-televised events like the ESPN College Slam Dunk and Three-Point Championship. They have also participated in programs with a variety of charities and events such as golf tournaments and auctions. High-energy routines, a glamorous look and a unique brand of audience interaction make the Honeybees an excellent addition to any special event. They can add excitement and class to charity and corporate functions, golf tournaments, grand openings, trade shows, holiday/birthday parties, halftime shows and other events.

For more information, call Ashley Deaton at (504) 593-4840 or email honeybees@hornets.com

For 19 years, Hugo The Hornet has delighted fans with his daring acrobatics and innovative comic routines to become one of the most beloved mascots in the NBA.

Hugo is known to entertain our fans with any one of his three identities. As Hugo the Hornet, he is at his best when interacting with fans both young and old. As Air Hugo, an inflated version of the mascot, he amuses the Hornet faithful with his unique brand of dancing. And as Super Hugo, he amazes the fans with gravity-defying dunks such as the "Flip Dunk," the "Helmet Dunk" and the famous "Bug on the Windshield Dunk," which helped him become a three-time NBA Mascot Slam Dunk Champion.

While Hugo is found at all Hornets home games during the season, he also makes more than 200 appearances per year for charities, fundraisers and other special events.The lovable bug also spends a great deal of his spare time visiting hospitals, schools and nursing homes.

Hugo has performed at multiple NBA All-Star Games, player charity events and MTV Rock-N-Jock Basketball Jams. His star power is not only limited to the United States, as he has performed in Canada, Costa Rica, France, England, the Netherlands, Germany, Italy, Argentina and Australia.

Invite Hugo to buzz by your next special event. Whether it's community, business, sports or any occasion, nothing puts a little sting in your event like an appearance by Hugo. For more information, visit Hornets.com or call Justin Bailey at (504) 593-4838 to book the best mascot in the NBA.

The Stingers have become one of the New Orleans Hornets' most popular entertainment teams. This junior hip hop dance team is made up of 24 talented boys and girls between the ages of seven and 12. The Stingers are a fan favorite performing high-energy fast-paced routines to hip hop and top 40 hits. Don't let their size fool you because these little kids take the court with a big presence and an energy that is contagious.

The Stingers perform at approximately 10 games a season and can also be found at Hornets' special events.

To have the Stingers appear at your next event or for more information call Ashley Deaton at (504)593-4840 or email stingers@hornets.com

"Hornets' Phills Dies in Car Crash" was the January 12, 2000 headline. The city of Charlotte was deeply saddened to lose one of its own, Hornets guard Bobby Phills. In June of 2000, Kendall Phills, wife of the late Bobby Phills, established The Bobby Phills Scholarship Fund, Inc. (BPSF) in honor of her husband.

Bobby Ray Phills' life epitomized high academic achievement, dedication to family and a commitment to community. An All-American honor student, Phills graduated cum laude from Southern University in Baton Rouge, La. He went on to a remarkable career in the NBA. Grateful for his gifts and accomplishments, Bobby gave freely of himself so that others might benefit from them as well. From home renovation for low-income families to charity golf outings, Bobby was a familiar and exciting presence. Bobby's personal magnetism was well-known on and off the court. His good humor, high values and generous spirit won him friends and fans wherever he went.

The BPSF is committed to continue his legacy and make a positive difference in the lives of youth for years to come. Our mission is to help economically disadvantaged individuals get back on track by providing opportunities that will change their lives. The Bobby Phills Scholarship Fund has established three key programs in an effort to support this mission.

The Bobby Phills Foundation Overview

Phillin' Futures (Scholarship Programs)

Since the establishment of the foundation in June of 2000, over $275,000 has been pledged and donated in scholarships and grants.

- Bobby Phills Scholarship: Annually, five $5,000 scholarships are awarded to graduating seniors in the Mecklenburg (N.C.) and surrounding counties. Applicants are selected on the basis of academic achievement, financial need, quality of essay and extracurricular activities.
- Hoops for a Higher Education Partnership: In 2003, The BPSF, The New Orleans Hornets and Dillard University partnered together to provide a total of $160,000 in financial assistance to incoming freshman at Dillard University in New Orleans, La. (32 one-time $5,000 scholarships in combined fund)
- Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund Partnership – $100,000 was donated by The Bobby Phills Scholarship Fund and matched by TMSF for a total of $200,000 to provide 16 students with a four-year scholarship to Southern University in Baton Rouge, La.

Phillin' Dreams (Holiday Giving Campaign)

- Thanksgiving Dinner Giveaway – The BPSF partnered with the Charlotte Mecklenburg Community Policing Department to donate Thanksgiving meals to needy families.
- Agape Family Center Christmas Party – The Agape Family Center is a respite care center for children and their families that have been affected by or infected with HIV. The BPSF provides a Christmas Party for the center that includes lunch, presents, and a visit from Santa.

Phillin' Safe (The Bobby Phills Foundation Safe Driving Campaign)

- The Bobby Phills Foundation has partnered with Charlotte's Traffic Safety Advisory Committee to present the 2004 "Speed A Little, Lose A Lot" campaign.
- With TSAC's assistance, the Bobby Phills Foundation has developed a safe driving program targeted at drivers 16-20 years old. The program centers on in-school appearances by Kendall Phills. These appearances feature thoughtful discussions of driving issues and a hard-hitting video illustrating the consequences of speeding.

BASKETBALL

The Game

- The 57th NBA All-Star Game will be played at New Orleans Arena, home of the Hornets, on Sunday, Feb. 17, 2008.
- The All-Star Game will reach a worldwide television audience in more than 200 countries and will be broadcast in more than 40 languages.
- This will be the first time that NBA All-Star is being held in New Orleans.
- For the 23rd year, Turner Sports will feature All-Star coverage and it will mark the fifth consecutive year the All-Star Game is televised in prime time.

Competitions

- All-Star competitions will tip off on Friday, Feb. 15, as the league's top rookies and second-year players square off in the T-Mobile Rookie Challenge and Youth Jam.
- NBA All-Star Saturday Night will feature the Haier Shooting Stars, a shooting competition of NBA Legends and NBA and WNBA players; Skills Challenge, where top guards work against the clock to complete a series of passes, long-range shots and agility drills; Three-Point Shootout, where six of the NBA's best long-range shooters compete against each other and the clock in a test of three-point shooting accuracy; and, the grand finale, the Sprite Slam Dunk Contest, will showcase some of the league's best athletes and their gravity-defying creativity.

COMMUNITY

NBA Cares

- The NBA Cares Community Caravan will partner with schools and community-based organizations in New Orleans and the surrounding areas featuring nearly 20 events in seven days including, among many others, the building of houses with Habitat for Humanity; the unveiling of a new Learn and Play Center; Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA and Wheelchair Basketball Fitness Clinics; and Read to Achieve Reading Caravans.
- Highlighting All-Star activities will be the NBA All-Star Legacy Project and a series of events with current and former NBA and WNBA players reaching out to serve youth-based organizations.

Global Reach

- Through television, Internet, film, and digital technologies and global media coverage, All-Star 2008 will reach millions of fans in over 200 countries and territories and will be broadcast in more than 40 languages.
- More than 1,500 domestic and international media are expected to cover All-Star events.
- NBA marketing partners will use All-Star 2008 as a platform to launch new products, promotions, and advertising campaigns to reach the league's fan base.

THE FANS

NBA All-Star Jam Session presented by adidas

- The 15th NBA All-Star Jam Session presented by adidas, the league's premier interactive basketball experience, will be held at The Ernest N. Morial Convention Center and feature more than 450,000 square feet of activities, games, exhibits, musical entertainment and player appearances and is expected to attract more than 100,000 fans.
- Jam Session also offers an extensive trading card and collectible areas, and an NBA Store where fans can purchase exclusive NBA and All-Star merchandise.
- Center Court features All-Star practices and celebrity skills challenges, while Club NBA is the music destination for some of today's hottest acts and tomorrow's stars.
- NBA marketing partners will conduct promotional and advertising activity at NBA Jam Session.

Balloting

- Fans will have the opportunity to vote in NBA arenas, on the NBA.com Network, and through mobile phones.
- A total of 120 players – 60 each from the Eastern and Western Conferences – are listed on the All-Star ballot, with 24 guards, 24 forwards and 12 centers from each conference comprising the ballot. Voters select two guards, two forwards and one center from each conference. The 120 players on the ballot are selected by a panel of media experts who regularly cover the NBA.
- Following the completion of fan voting and the starting line-up announcement, head coaches in each conference will vote to determine the remaining All-Stars in their respective conference. They must vote for seven players, including two guards, two forwards, a center and two players regardless of position and are not permitted to vote for players on their team.
- If a player is unable to participate in the All-Star Game due to injury, Commissioner David Stern will select a replacement. If the injured player was voted a starter by fans, the head coach will select a replacement starter.

Media Information

Following The Hornets

Hornets On Cox Sports Television

The New Orleans Hornets and Cox Sports Television will begin their sixth year of bringing a variety of both home and road games into the homes in the Greater New Orleans area.

CST will broadcast 65 regular season games on Cox Communications in Louisiana. Games will be aired on CST (New Olreans cable channel 37) in Louisiana.

Bob Licht enters his third season handling the television play-by-play duties for the Hornets, while Gil McGregor begins his 20th season of providing color analysis for the team. Jordy Hultberg will return for his sixth season as sideline reporter.

Prior to each game, fans can tune in to "Hornets Tonight," a 30-minute pregame show hosted by Hultberg that covers up-to-the-minute NBA news, information and features on the Hornets, while previewing that night's game. Also, Coach Byron Scott's weekly show will air on Cox each Thursday evening during the regular season in Louisiana.

Radio Network Flagship Station - KMEZ 102.9 FM

All 82 regular season games, eight preseason games and the Hornets' entire playoff schedule will be heard on the team's flagship station, KMEZ 102.9 FM "Old School 102.9" in New Orleans, as the Hornets begin the first of a multi-season agreement with Citadel Broadcasting.

Bob Licht
Television Play-by-Play Announcer

Bob Licht begins his third season on screen as the Hornets TV play-by-play announcer and his 12th season with the team. Prior to beginning his current role, he spent nine seasons as the radio voice of the Hornets.

Licht, known for his high-energy, colorful broadcasts (including his signature big basket call, "Bottom!"), is also responsible for negotiating and building the Hornets Radio Network, as well as authoring a weekly column (In The Lane) on hornets.com.

For five seasons Licht was the play-by-play voice of the WNBA's Charlotte Sting and co-host of the Hornets and Sting monthly TV magazine shows.

The 31-year broadcast veteran also has an extensive background in professional baseball, spanning three levels of minor league play. During that time, the Detroit native served as play-by-play voice for the Florida Marlins' Triple-A team (Charlotte Knights, International League) in 1996 and 1997 and the Pittsburgh Pirates' Double-A team (Carolina Mudcats, Southern League) from 1990-1995. He was named the league's broadcaster of the year in 1995.

Licht graduated from Syracuse University with a degree in broadcast journalism in 1981. During his time at Syracuse, he was involved in radio broadcasts of S.U. football, basketball and lacrosse. As a junior, he served as a reporter at the 1980 Lake Placid Winter Olympics and did play-by-play for the Toronto Blue Jays' Triple-A team (Syracuse Chiefs). Following his graduation, Licht was the play-by-play voice of Marietta (Ohio) College football, basketball and baseball. From there, he moved back to North Carolina where he worked with the Wake Forest University football and basketball network as an engineer, color analyst and play-by-play broadcaster.

Gil McGregor
Television Color Analyst

Gil McGregor is an original member of the Hornets broadcast team and begins his 20th year behind the microphone.

McGregor currently serves as an analyst for all Hornets telecasts on Cox Sports Television. McGregor is also an analyst of Atlantic Coast Conference Basketball telecasts with Jefferson Pilot/Raycom Sports. His other broadcast experience includes the NCAA Tournament on ESPN, MEAC Basketball telecasts on ESPN2, CIAA Basketball and Football and analyst for Southern University Jaguar basketball on Cox.

A nationally-known keynote/motivational speaker, McGregor has been an ambassador for the Hornets' "Stay In School" program. He has also been a regular visitor at area schools where he addresses the importance of students completing their education and staying away from drugs and violence. McGregor has addressed educators on issues of school morale and professional development.

The 6-8 McGregor joined the Hornets after serving as academic advisor of athletics at his alma mater, Wake Forest University. He was the starting center for the Demon Deacons from 1968 to 1971 after being named one of the top 50 high school players in the country in 1966-67. He was drafted out of college by the Cincinnati Royals (now the Sacramento Kings) in the 1971 NBA Draft and played in 42 games with the Royals during the 1971-72 season. McGregor concluded his basketball career by playing seven years professionally in Belgium, France and Italy.

McGregor's various activities in the community include School To Career, Teach America and the Louisiana High School Athletic Director Association. He has served on numerous boards, including the Foundations of the Carolinas Grant Advisory Board, the Board of Visitors of Chapel Hill Children's Hospital and the Board of Visitors of UNC-Charlotte. McGregor also served as the honorary chairman of the March of Dimes Walk America. He was also a member of St. Charles Avenue Presbyterian Church in New Orleans and Sigma Pi Phi.

McGregor has adult daughters and he and his wife, Frieda, have a son, Gilbert Odell.

Sean Kelley
Radio Play-by-Play Announcer

Sean Kelley enters his third season as the radio play-by-play voice of the Hornets in 2007-08. Prior to joining the Hornets full time, he spent two seasons as the team's primary radio studio host while also doing occasional play-by-play work in a fill-in role on Hornets radio broadcasts.

Kelley served as the voice of the Tulane Green Wave from 2002-2005. While in that role, he provided play-by-play for the school's football, basketball and baseball action. He was also the host of the Tulane coach's television and radio shows. In addition to his work at Tulane, Kelley filled in as both radio play-by-play announcer and public address announcer for the New Orleans Zephyrs, the city's AAA baseball franchise.

Prior to his work with Tulane, Kelley was with KFRU-AM in Columbia, Mo., from 1998-2002. He was the station's sports director, anchor and host while doing play-by-play for the University of Missouri baseball team and also spent two years as the pregame, halftime and postgame host for the Missouri Tiger Radio Network. Kelley's broadcast experience during that time also included work on the prep circuit announcing football and basketball on radio and television in Missouri and Illinois.

Kelley studied broadcast journalism at Northeast Missouri State University and Southern Illinois University. He provided play-by-play for the Southern Illinois baseball and women's basketball teams from 1996-1998 and also spent time as sports director, anchor and host at WTAO-FM in Carbondale, Ill. Throughout his career, Kelley has worked as a talk show host, anchor and reporter at various special events, including the ACC Basketball Tournament.

Kelley and his wife, Kimberly, have two children, Keighley and Colin.

Gerry Vaillancourt
Radio Color Analyst

Gerry Vaillancourt returns for his 18th season on the Hornets broadcast team. Vaillancourt serves as the color analyst on all Hornets radio broadcasts.

In his current role, Vaillancourt not only provides the commentary for 82 game broadcasts, but also hosts the Hornets' "Final Buzz" post-game call-in show. While the team was in Oklahoma City, he hosted the "Gerry V" show on 1280 AM in New Orleans and currently hosts the same show on WRNO 99.5 FM in New Orleans.

In 2001-02, he shared duties as a television analyst while hosting the halftime and post-game shows and providing game reporting from inside the huddle during Hornet timeouts.

Vaillancourt served as the team's studio show host from 1994 to 1999. Prior to that, he spent two years as the team's television color commentator and two as a radio commentator. He also served as sports director of then-Hornets affiliate WCCB-TV from 1989 to 1991.

For 10 years, Vaillancourt made a mark on the Charlotte sports talk radio scene, as he was voted Talk Show Host of the Year in 1998, 1999 and 2000 by Creative Loafing magazine. He made his first appearance on the Charlotte airwaves in 1991 as host of "Sports Talk" on WCNT and spent two years at WFNZ in the same capacity. He switched stations in April 1996 to begin "The Gerry V Show," his own drive-time sports talk show, on WBT. He also hosted the NFL post-game call-in show on WBT after all Carolina Panther NFL games.

An ex-Gardner Webb University hoopster, Vaillancourt has extensive coaching experience, with stints at Bishop McGinnis H.S. in Winston-Salem, N.C., James Madison University in Virginia, Davidson College and Appalachian State University. He also dedicated summers to coaching a team in the Charlotte Pro-Am Summer League and has lectured several times each summer at the prestigious Five-Star Basketball Camp.

Vaillancourt spends a great deal of time participating in basketball clinics, giving motivational seminars and speaking publicly on the banquet circuit and to various businesses and corporations.

A New York City native, Vaillancourt, his wife, Tracy, and son, Mason (11), reside in River Ridge, La. He also has two daughters, Kellie and Shannon.

Jordy Hultberg
Television Host & Sideline Reporter

Jordy Hultberg begins his sixth season as the host of "Hornets Tonight," the Hornets pregame show on Cox Sports Television. He also serves as the sideline reporter during the telecasts and wraps things up as the host of the Hornets postgame show. In addition, Hultberg will serve as host of the Byron Scott television show throughout the NBA season.

No stranger to basketball in Louisiana, Hultberg was a two-year captain of the LSU Tigers basketball team under Dale Brown from 1976-80. He helped the Tigers win two SEC titles and make two NCAA Tournament appearances. Upon graduation with a degree in finance, he served as an assistant coach at LSU for three seasons, handling every aspect of the program, from on-the-floor coaching to scouting and recruiting.

In 1983, Hultberg began his career in sports broadcasting as a color commentator for the newly developed "Tigervision," an LSU pay-per-view broadcasting network. Since then, he has provided analysis for ESPN, ESPN Regional, Jefferson Pilot Sports, Fox Sports South and Comcast as a college basketball color commentator.

During football season, Hultberg works as a commentator for the LSU radio and television broadcasts as the sideline reporter and serves as the host of the Inside LSU Football television show. In addition to his work in the sports world, Hultberg is also the vice president of the Gregory Advertising Group, an agency that specializes in television, radio and print advertising, primarily for automotive dealerships.

Hultberg has three children, Jordan, Richard and KK, and lives in Baton Rouge with his wife, Shannon, and their daughter, Catherine Jordan.

Scott Hall
Director of Basketball Communications

Scott Hall enters his seventh season with the Hornets in 2007-08, his third as director of basketball communications. He was promoted to his current position shortly after the team's temporary move to Oklahoma City in September of 2005 after spending the previous three seasons as sports public relations manager. Hall began his tenure with the team as public relations assistant during the 2001-02 season (the team's final season in Charlotte).

Hall oversees all internal and external communications regarding the team's on-the-court activities. His duties in that role include serving as team spokesman, acting as a liaison to local and national media and accommodating press needs both at home and on the road. Hall's department is responsible for producing the team's annual regular season and postseason media guides, compiling game notes, scheduling and overseeing player and staff interview requests both locally and nationally, writing news releases, maintaining statistical upkeep and biographical information and the general dissemination of information regarding the team.

Before joining the Hornets organization, Hall spent four seasons in the Continental Basketball Association. He began his career in the CBA as media relations and broadcasting coordinator with the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Fury in 1997. After two seasons with the Fury, Hall was named director of media, public and community relations for the Idaho Stampede. Following the conclusion of the 1999-2000 season, he returned to Fort Wayne as director of media relations and broadcasting. Before his time in the CBA, Hall worked as director of media relations for the Austin Lone Stars professional soccer team.

Originally from West Virginia, Hall earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Texas in 1997. He currently resides in New Orleans with his wife, Kirsten, and their son, Robert.

Michael Thompson
Director of Corporate Communications

Michael Thompson begins his eighth season with the Hornets, and his fourth in the corporate communications role. Prior to this promotion, Thompson served as the team's community relations assistant for two seasons and director of youth programs for two seasons.

As director of corporate communications, Thompson is responsible for handling the team's non-basketball communications function, working in conjunction with various departments to craft and deliver the team's corporate message.

Prior to joining the Hornets, Thompson spent two seasons with the Yakima Sun Kings of the Continental Basketball Association as a client services specialist and eventually director of public relations.

A graduate of Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Wash., Thompson was born in Chicago, but raised in Hong Kong, where he graduated from the Hong Kong International School. He and his wife, Tara, reside in Kenner with their daughter, Madeleine.

Dennis Rogers
Basketball Communications Manager

Dennis Rogers begins his fifth season with the Hornets, his third as basketball communications manager.

Rogers assists in all aspects of the communications department, including compiling all game notes, editor of the media guide and post-season guide, overseeing the statistical crew, traveling with the team on designated road trips, writing news releases, fulfilling player and staff interview requests both locally and nationally, while maintaining statistical upkeep of player performances. He is also a regular contributor to Hornets.com and Hornets Magazine.

During the off-season, Rogers serves as the director of public relations for the NBA Summer League (formerly the Vegas Summer League) where he coordinates all PR duties for the league and writes all content for the website and the media program. Rogers has been with the summer league, which featured 21 NBA teams this past July, since its inception in 2004.

Prior to joining the Hornets, Rogers served as a basketball operations assistant for Momentum Sports Agency in San Antonio and interned with the Dallas Cowboys during the 2002 season. Rogers graduated from Southern Methodist University in Dallas with a bachelor's degree in corporate communications/public affairs. He served as the graduate volunteer for the Mississippi State men's basketball team during the 2000-01 season, during which the Bulldogs appeared in the Elite Eight of the NIT Tournament, while pursuing his masters in sports administration.

Born in Los Angeles, but raised in Texas, Rogers grew up in Dallas and San Antonio.

Vicki Guerra
Corporate Communications Manager

Vicki Guerra is entering her second year as a member of the Hornets communications staff. In her role as corporate communications manager, Guerra is responsible for the development of the organization's public relations plans and campaigns. In addition, she maintains the Hornets Speakers Bureau schedule.

Guerra was promoted to her current position in August, 2006 after serving as a fan experience representative. Prior to her arrival at the Hornets, Guerra interned at the American Junior Golf Association and spent two years with the University of Oklahoma athletics department under its senior woman administrator. At OU she served as media contact for OU National Girls and Women in Sports Day (a national campaign with Nike featuring WNBA standout Lisa Leslie) and also worked in the media relations department as a student assistant.

Guerra graduated from OU in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in journalism and in 2006 with a master's degree in intercollegiate athletics administration.

Lindsey Wyckoff
Basketball Communications Coordinator

Lindsey Wyckoff begins her first season with the Hornets as basketball communications coordinator.

Wyckoff's responsibilities include compiling information for game notes and media guides, assisting with the credential process, writing news releases and maintaining statistical upkeep.

A native of North Canton, Ohio, Wyckoff spent a year as an assistant in the Rutgers Athletic Communications department. During her time with the Scarlet Knights, Wyckoff served as the primary contact for seven sports and acted as the secondary contact for the women's basketball team, as well as helping execute the communications efforts for the football team.

Wyckoff, a 2006 graduate of Bloomsburg University, worked for three years in the Sports Information department, while also participating in the Public Relations Student Society of America and overseeing the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee. In four seasons as a member of the Huskies' tennis team, she helped the squad to three appearances in the NCAA Division II Sweet 16, as well as three conference titles.

Rosters
Each team is required to carry 12 players on its Active List and one player on its Inactive List. Teams may have a maximum of three players on the Inactive List. A team may periodically carry 11 players on its Active List and/or no players on its Inactive List, but for no more than two consecutive weeks at a time. There are no limitations to the amount of time spent on the Inactive List or number of times players can move back and forth between the Active and Inactive Lists. Teams must have a minimum of eight players dressed, eligible and able to participate in all exhibition and regular season games.

NBA Development League
During a player's first two seasons in the NBA (regardless of his age when he entered the league), his team will be permitted to assign him to a team in the NBA Development League. A player can be assigned to the D-League up to three times per season. The player will continue to be paid his NBA salary and will continue to be included on his NBA team's roster (on the Inactive List) while playing in the D-League. Players sent to the NBA Development League will continue to count on a team's Inactive List.

Ten-Day Contracts
Beginning on January 8, 2008, a team may sign a player to a 10-day contract. No player may be signed to more than two 10-day agreements.

Trading Deadline
No trades are permitted after 3:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on Thursday, February 21, 2008. From that point to the end of the regular season, player additions must be made through the waiver procedure or by signing free agents.

Waivers
From August 15, 2007 to the end of the regular season, clubs may claim waived players within 48 business hours after notice. Players waived at any other time may be claimed within seven days. If no team claims the waived player, he becomes a free agent.

Guaranteed Contract Date
On January 10, 2008, all player contracts become guaranteed for the remainder of the season.

Playoff Rosters
Teams must submit their playoff rosters by 3:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on the day following the last day of the regular season (regular season ends April 16, 2008).

Renunciation Of Amateur Eligibility
A person who is at least 19 years of age and who is one year removed from high school shall become eligible for the college draft if he renounces his intercollegiate basketball eligibility by written notice to the NBA at least 60 days prior to the draft (NBA Draft is on June 26, 2008). Prior to the 60 days before the draft, teams may not make direct contact with players who have intercollegiate basketball eligibility left. Clubs may contact players without remaining eligibility but may not discuss compensation.

Salary Cap
The salary cap for the 2007-08 season is $55.63 million.

As we enter into the 2007-08 NBA season, the communications department would like to establish a professional working relationship with the members of the media who are new to the organization and continue the positive relationships we have with the members of the media who have covered us in the past. Please read through the following guidelines and if you have any further questions, feel free to contact Scott Hall at (504) 593-4828, Dennis Rogers at (504) 593-4829 or Lindsey Wyckoff at (504) 593-4830.

Media Credentials

Single game requests should be directed to the Hornets communications office no later than noon the day before the game you wish to cover (Friday at noon for Sunday and Monday games). First-time requests must be in written form on company letterhead and received by the aforementioned deadline. Because of limited press seating, credentials and/or courtside seats cannot be guaranteed. Credentials are good for admittance to the pressroom, dining area, locker rooms and seating areas and may be picked up at the press entrance (located at the loading dock entrance, which is across the street from Lot #4 at the New Orleans Arena). Credentials must be worn at all times and are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the arena and the forfeiture of the credential. An autograph request by a media member will also result in the forfeiture of the credential.

Press Parking/Press Gate

Working media should park in Lot #4 (off of Girod Street) under the Harrah's billboard sign and cross the street to enter the New Orleans Arena through the doors by the loading dock. You will be able to pick up your credential at a table in front of the security office windows upon entering the arena. Your name will be on a parking list held by the security guard at the entrance of the lot.

Press Room

The pressroom is located at the west end of the arena to the right of the loading dock areas and is open four hours before game time. We must limit pressroom usage to the working media and game staff only. We are not able to accommodate any family, friends or guests. Telephones, fax service, internet access, game notes, statistics, quotes and out-of-town scores are available in this area. Please use common courtesy in securing a quiet working environment in the pressroom.

Pre and Post-Game Interviews

In accordance with NBA policy, the locker rooms are open to members of the media until 45 minutes before the game and within 10 minutes after the game. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times. Only working members of the media with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker room. Your cooperation is requested in maintaining a professional atmosphere in the locker room for pre and post game interviews. Per NBA policy, use of cellular phones in the locker room is prohibited. Head Coach Byron Scott will be available approximately 10 minutes following the game in the pressroom.

Game Notes and Statistics

Game notes and additional press materials are available in the pressroom three hours before each game. Statistics are distributed to the working media during the game and are also available in the pressroom. Postgame notes and quotes are distributed a short time following the completion of the game. Statistics monitors are provided at courtside for television and radio broadcasts as well as for print and television media.

Fax Service

The Hornets will provide complimentary fax service to members of the working media following each game. Please contact a member of the communications department if you need to use the fax machine.

Photographers

Season passes will be provided to accredited photographers from New Orleans area daily newspapers and television stations who plan on covering at least 30 of the Hornets' 41 regular season home games. Weekly newspaper photographers will be handled on an individual game basis. Photographs are also available from the communications department. Photographers must be on assignment for a publication to be credentialed. Limited space is available at each end of the court for both television and still photographers. Photographers must stay in the designated area. Photographers may not sit on equipment cases and live television cameras have first priority on location and right of way. All NBA league rules regarding photography apply.

Meals

A pregame meal is served in the room adjacent to the media workroom at the arena two and a half hours before each game. Beverages and snacks are available in the pressroom at halftime and following each game.

Practice Policy

The Hornets practice at the Alario Center in Westwego, located off of the West Bank Expressway (2000 Segnette Boulevard). Media should enter through the main entrance of the building (adjacent to the box office window) and park in the general parking lot. Parking in the turnaround area is not permitted, and violators will be towed. Practices are closed to the public, but open for the final 30 minutes to the media. The players and coaches are available immediately following the practice for courtside interviews. Please contact the Hornets communications department to confirm practice times and the availability of the players and coaches. Interviews lasting longer than five minutes should be scheduled in advance with the Hornets communications department. Photographers and television crews may shoot the final 30 minutes of practice. There is a press area with phone access available to the media throughout practice.

Directions From the N.O. Airport (Louis Armstong) to the N.O. Arena

Follow airport access road to I-10 East. Go approximately eight miles, stay in the right lanes at I-10/I-610 split (after Bonnabel Blvd. Exit) and follow I-10 Eastbound towards downtown New Orleans. Go approximately three miles after the split, stay in the middle lanes and take the Superdome Exit. Turn right at the end of the ramp onto Girod Street. The arena is in the first block on your right. Driving time is approximately 30 minutes, but allow 45 minutes during rush hour.

Directions From the N.O. Airport to the Alario Center (Practice Site)

Follow airport access road to I-10 East. Take Clearview Parkway Southbound. Follow Clearview Parkway, proceed onto Huey P. Long Bridge. At traffic circle at the end of the bridge, take second exit and follow US 90 Westbound. Go approximately 1.75 miles and follow signs to West Bank Expressway. Alario Center will be approximately 1.5 miles on your right. The address is 2000 Segnette Boulevard. Driving time is approximately 40 minutes.

Directions From Downtown N.O. to the Alario Center (Practice Site)

Take the Crescent City Connection Bridge (US 90 W/Pontchartrain Expressway) towards the Westbank (will become Westbank Expressway). Continue on expressway as it goes to ground level. Stay on the ground level as it goes through Marrero and Westwego. You will pass Bayou Segnette State Park on your left. The second traffic light from there will be Segnette Blvd. Turn left at the light into the Alario Center.
